Dear Sir/Madam

ASX RELEASE – CHANGE OF NAME OF SUBSIDIARY AND SETTING UP OF NEW RADIATION ONCOLOGY DIVISION

The Board of Directors of Asian American Medical Group Limited (“AAMG” or “the Company”) refers to its earlier announcement dated 5 January 2015, in relation to the cessation of its operations of its wholly owned subsidiary, Asian American Blood & Marrow Transplant Centre Pte Ltd (“AABMTC”).

The Company wishes to announce that AABMTC has been renamed Asian American Radiation Oncology Pte Ltd (“AARO”) to reflect the establishment of a new radiation oncology business segment. This new business segment will be headed by Dr. Daniel Tan Yat Harn (“Daniel”), who will officially commence his employment in AARO on 6 April 2015.

Daniel, who received his clinical oncology and radiation oncology training from the Royal College of Radiologists, UK, and the Academy of Medicine, Singapore, has more than twelve years of working experience, including eight years as a Radiation Oncologist at the National Cancer Centre Singapore (“NCCS”), and will lead in the development of markets and growth in the area of Radiotherapy and Oncology Services.

The new abovementioned business segment is not expected to have any material effect on the net earnings and net tangible assets per share of the Group for the financial year ending 31 August 2015.

On behalf of the Board

DARIO NAZZARI
Company Secretary

About Asian American Medical Group

Asian American Medical Group (“AAMG”) is based in Singapore and has been listed on the Australian Securities Exchange since September 2009. The Group’s operations include the Asian American Liver Centre Pte Ltd (“AALC”), established in 1994 in Singapore.

The Group entered into a strategic collaboration in October 2012 with the US-based US$10-billion integrated global health enterprise UPMC. UPMC, one of the top 10 medical institutions in the United States, is affiliated with the University of Pittsburgh Schools of the Health Sciences and a pioneer in the field of transplantation. This collaboration has enhanced AAMG’s clinical capabilities through shared protocols, rigorous quality standards and technology and also created a platform for AAMG to expand into other countries in Asia such as Myanmar and Russia.

AALC, one of Asia’s foremost liver centres, is led by renowned hepatobiliary expert and liver transplant surgeon, Dr Tan Kai Chah (Dr KC Tan), who helped start the Liver Transplant Programme at the King’s College Hospital London, UK, and pioneered the highly successful Living Donor Liver Transplantation (LDLT) Programme in Singapore. In 2014, AALC begun conducting surgical procedures at iHEAL Medical Centre, located in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.
