Dear Sir/Madam

ASX RELEASE – STATUTORY DEMAND BY PARKWAY HOSPITAL SINGAPORE PTE LTD AND RELOCATION OF SUBSIDIARY

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of Asian American Medical Group Limited wishes to announce that the clinical operations of wholly-owned subsidiary, Asian American Liver Centre Pte Ltd (AALC), has been relocated to 6 Napier Road, Gleneagles Medical Centre, #05-16, Singapore 258499, with effect from 18 April 2022.

This follows the statutory demand and repossession of its premises at 6A Napier Road, Gleneagles Hospital Annexe Block, #02-37, Singapore 258500 by Parkway Hospital Singapore Pte Ltd against AALC for unpaid lease rentals.

On behalf of the Board

DARIO NAZZARI

Company Secretary

About Asian American Medical Group

Singapore-based and Australian Securities Exchange-listed Asian American Medical Group (AAMG) operates leading liver centres in Singapore. Established in 1994, its Asian American Liver Centre is one of Asia's foremost liver centres led by the late Dato' Dr Tan Kai Chah, renowned hepatobiliary expert and liver transplant surgeon, who helped start the Liver Transplant Programme at the King's College Hospital London and pioneered the Living Donor Liver Transplantation Programme in Singapore.

AAMG also provides healthcare management and consultancy services for healthcare overseas projects. It also manages healthcare real estate, including the development of AAMG's cancer centre in Johor, Malaysia.
